Gems of Umbria & Tuscany

9-days

April – September departures

Travel off the beaten path and visit some of the medieval hill towns and beautiful gems that call central Italy home. Begin & end in Rome, and in between overnight in Spoleto, San Martino in Campo, Siena, and Orvieto. Learn about the Etruscans, who lived here for centuries before the Romans did. Orvieto sits atop a volcanic rock and has a labyrinth of caves carved by Etruscans. Included cave visit as well as Orvieto's cathedral, dating back to the early 14th century. Excursion to Volterra, a former important Etruscan city, and San Gimignano, a picturesque, perfectly preserved medieval town with its 14 towers from the 13th century. Includes guided walking tours in Spoleto, Assisi and Perugia. Airfare additional.

Sail between Odessa and Kiev on this exciting cruisetour! Cruise the Dnieper River to the Black Sea, an ancient and splendid trade route lined with rich cultural treasures, onion-domed churches and rural folkways that recall the days of Vikings, Tatars and Cossacks. Visit Kiev's Cave Monasteries. Marvel at the riding skill of Cossack horsemen. And trace the footsteps of history at Odessa's Potemkin Steps. Kiev is one of Europe's oldest cities. From the 9th century on, Kiev was the main Dnieper River trade center on the route between Scandinavia to the Black Sea and Constantinople.

Various departures Legacy of the Incas 12-days Globus from $4,079.00 pp/dbl

Peru is one of the great originating centers of ancient culture, and on this vacation you'll discover its archaeological treasures, visit its ancient ruins, and learn about its ancient culture. Visit Lima, Sacred Valley, the amazing Inca city of Machu Picchu where you'll visit this amazing Inca city and historical Cusco, Juliaca, Lake Titicaca and Paracas. Of course, no trip to Peru is complete without seeing the Nazca Lines. When seen from the air, the lines form precise geometric shapes that number in the hundreds, as well as 70 figures, which include a monkey, whale, hummingbird, shark, spiders, and plants. Archaeologists remain puzzled about why the ancient Nazca people, who thrived here from 200 BC to 500 AD, created illustrations that could only be seen from far above the earth. Airfare additional.
